

Hello St Clair County Republicans!

My name is Michaela Garand and I am a County Co-Captain with Walt Caughel for Citizens for Local Choice. We are a group of grassroots activists uniting across Michigan to win back local zoning control for industrial energy projects from Lansing bureaucrats.

As many of you likely know, in November the state legislature voted to give the final say over local zoning for industrial energy projects to unelected Lansing bureaucrats instead of local township and city boards. This vote was completely partisan and driven by special interests and Governor Whitmer's "green energy" plan.

That means that we now have no say on a local level as to what goes up in our communities and next to our homes. This is just another step towards losing our freedom and our voice as Michiganders to big government and out of state special interest groups and corporations.

But we have a chance to fight back! Starting now and going until a deadline of May 29th, we need to collect 550,000 signatures across the state to get this put on the November ballot for a vote. That's our one chance to get our voices heard and let Lansing know that we're not giving up our freedom without a fight!

I am asking every single one of you to sign a petition, circulate a petition, and maybe even volunteer to help lead your community and neighbors. To find out more and to get a petition, please come to our County Kick-Off meeting next week!

Who: St Clair County Citizens for Local Choice

When: Tuesday, February 13th from 7-8pm

Where: 4189 Keewahdin Rd, Fort Gratiot (Wurzel's Flea Market building)

We have a Facebook page that we'd love for you to join to get info and learn about events: St Clair County Citizens for Local Choice. There you can RSVP for the meeting (and other upcoming events), communicate with us via Messenger, and learn more about the cause. Additionally here's a video to view and share with your friends and family: St Clair County Citizens for Local Choice Intro Video.

Thank you for being passionate patriots and we can't wait to meet you next Tuesday!

Michaela Garand & Walt Caughel
St Clair County Co-Captains
Citizens for Local Choice